A word from our Minister...

Following on from my article last month I am glad to say that the complaint which was to be lodged against me via the Business Committee of the Presbytery of Glasgow would appear to have resulted in no further action at this time. My thanks to those of you who spoke to me, emailed or phoned offering your support for the action I took on your behalf.

Rev Ian Taylor

Another word from our Minister... On yer bike

On 7th January, 2016, following the terrible flooding throughout large parts of England and the North East of Scotland, I was cycling from our Manse to Bishopbriggs train station to attend some meetings in 121 George Street, Edinburgh. The rain was 'stoating' off the pavements in the morning darkness, but my waterproofs gave me some protection from the elements. As I crossed the path between Greenhill and Woodfield Avenue my cycle torch picked up ahead of me what looked like a dark puddle. The further I travelled into the puddle, the higher the water rose until it reached the central hub of my wheel, and at which point the cold water washed over my shoes as I frantically pedalled through the depths of what seemed like a deep pond! Despite my waterproofs my feet were soaking. Sitting on the train stripped of my outer layer of waterproofs I quickly began to enjoy the heat of the train, and began to reflect on how miserable I was feeling with wet feet!

But then I thought of those who had been displaced from their homes and lost prized possessions because of the recent severe flooding. My socks would dry, all would be well, and my discomfort was only temporary. Then my mobile phone rang, and it was a friend who is an ex soldier, who could not contain his laughter when I explained my plight - should I go to the toilet on the train, take off my socks, ring them out, and put them on the radiator in the train to dry them out en route to Edinburgh. Such practical ethical dilemmas. He left me with these words ringing in my ears, "Remember Ian, the old army saying, 'Wear a pair, wash a pair, and keep a spare.'" I had thought with my waterproofs that I was prepared, but clearly I was not.

As I neared Haymarket station, it occurred to me that the way in which the water of the puddle washed over me, is not unlike the grace of God. Sometimes we expect it, and are prepared for it, but sometimes we are not. It floods over us whether we are ready or not, but it leaves its impression and mark upon us. As we approach the time when the clocks will go forward and we near British Summer Time, I hope that this time will be grace filled, but maybe without quite so much rain.

Rev Ian Taylor

It is my pleasure to thank all who donated to the Flower Ministry over the past year. Thank you for making it possible to carry on caring through the giving of flowers. It is an on-going ministry and I want to say thank you for keeping it alive.

My thanks also go to the Ladies of the Flower Committee who arrange the flowers every week and deliver them after the Sunday Service.

Please pass on any information about anyone who could benefit from receiving flowers from the Church so that we can try to help as many people as possible.

The Guild

On 25th January our speaker was Laura MacCalman from the Heritage Team of West Dunbartonshire Council who gave us an interesting talk on the role played by the Singer factory during the long period it was located in Clydebank including the role it played in the war effort. This prompted many memories for members one of whom brought along the gold watch presented to her father for his 40 years of service with the company. It was an interesting insight into the history of what seemed to be, in the heyday of Glasgow's industrial past, a factory which would be there forever and then in a few years was no more!

On 8th February we all enjoyed an excellent evening being entertained by The Glasgow Accordion Band. Their music and the interspersed patter was a tonic to us all and there were a great many people singing along in the audience. It was a very enjoyable evening.

On 7th March we are holding our Hostess Tea. Entry by ticket only please and these can be obtained through any committee member for a donation of at least £4. The next meeting is then not until 4th April when we will hear something about the History of the Central Hotel from Jill Scott and Bill Hicks. The session concludes with our AGM on 18th April.

BIQ QUESTIONS SMALL ANSWERS???

Prayer for All - what does it mean to me?
Prayer is an essential part of our lives as Christians, but is often an area we struggle with. How to pray, when to pray, what to pray?

In a world which is becoming increasingly frantic with activity it is good to be able to sit with the one who says to us, "I am with you..." (St. Matthew 28:20). Few of us live lives so rushed that it is impossible for us to find a few minutes, or even half an hour, when we can let everything around us be quiet and submit ourselves completely to eternity, when we can let it speak to us and ask it about ourselves. In that way we can look very deeply within ourselves and quite far beyond ourselves. Prayer for All gives me the time and space to do that in the company of others, who like me are wrestling with big questions and searching for small answers.

Rev Ian Taylor

I've been involved in Prayer for All since its inception. Initially I felt it was something I felt we needed and over the years it's been a great benefit on many levels. I know from personal experience that there's nothing more powerful than to know that you're being prayed for and people who have been upheld in prayer at Prayer for All have commented on that too. It's something which gives me time to set half an hour aside to communicate with God with a group of fellow Christians and my life is the better for being there because it maintains a link with my home church and even lowers my blood pressure. Unfortunately at the moment I'm not there as often as I would like and I miss it. Come along, try it. You'll benefit, others will benefit – and God will love it.

Lynne Robertson

Prayer for all is an excellent opportunity to serve our church. For any church, a prayer group should resemble the engine room of the church, and for me, Prayer for All does resemble this. We take time to pray for each event occurring in the church, be it Communion, a Board or Session meeting, one of our organisations displays or a fund raising social event. Prayer for All also affords us time to pray for those in our parish who are hurting through sickness or bereavement. Equally as importantly, this weekly time for prayer allows us to give thanks to God for the many people who serve our church, and for all God has blessed us with.

Douglas Robertson

Prayer is defined as a petition addressed to God. It is for this purpose that a Christian Quorum gathers every Wednesday evening at 6.45pm in Springfield Cambridge Chapel. A Christian Quorum is 2 or 3 gathered together in Jesus name

The prayer meeting thus assembled is not exclusive anyone can come along, either regularly, occasionally or perhaps only once. All members of the congregation and others are welcome to attend, to take part, or simply to be observers. Do come along whenever you can – even if only on one occasion.

Bill Finlay

From 1 Thessalonians, chapter 5, verse 17: pray without ceasing (King James Bible), pray unceasingly (BSB), pray continually (NIV), never stop praying (NLT). Whichever translation you read in the bible, the message is the same – prayer is central and core for all members of the church.

When I go to the gym for a swim and a sauna, I come away feeling physically invigorated. When I attend the church prayer group, I come away feeling spiritually uplifted. It's a good feeling. James Robertson

Peace settles upon us as the prayers begin. It is about listening as well as speaking aloud in prayer, and each is as important as the other.

There is strength in being together, thinking of others and trusting in God. There is a Peace to be gained there that goes with you as you leave and go back out into the reality of life again.

Ann Harvey

Prayer for all meets at 6.45pm each Wednesday. All are welcome

Diamond Wedding

Elizabeth (Bunty) Edgar and Mervyn Porter

Bunty & Mervyn were married in Giffnock Congregational Church on 20th February 1956. They lived in Langside for eight years before moving to Bishopbriggs to become the first residents in Kirriemuir Road.

On behalf of all members of the congregation we would offer our sincere and hearty congratulations on achieving this wonderful milestone!

Recycle for Profit

It is very pleasing to report that over the last phase there has been a steady flow of CDs and DVDs finding their way into the appropriate drawer in the storage unit located in cloakroom off the Hall of Fellowship. This “steady flow” has been converted in to a series of orders which, on behalf of church funds, has realised the sums of - £17.54 - £32.33 - £12.05 - £47.38 - £17.30 - £14.04.

A very welcome total of £140.64 – raised in just over 4 months.

Thus demonstrating that indeed every single item placed in the collection boxes is of worth to your church. To all those who have donated over the last three years - our continuing sincere thanks are extended to you on behalf of your church.

In the meantime, at the start of a new year, now is the time to look forward to a fresh start – and with spring cleaning just around the corner to help in the process – please keep an eye out for those CDs and DVDs ‘pleasurably watched and heard’, that could now wend their way in to the storage box for your church’s demonstrated benefit!

From Marlene Manson & Family

Marlene Manson and family wish to thank everyone for cards, gifts and condolences following the death of Arthur, beloved husband and devoted father and grandfather. We cant put in to words how much your support and helped. Thank you.

Catherine McDonald & Family

With sincere and Grateful Thanks. On behalf of myself and my family, I would like to thank Mr Taylor for all his support during my mum's long period of illness. We would also like to thank everyone in attendance at our mum's funeral and church members who helped with that. Finally our thanks go to all for their kind messages of condolence and flowers following mum's passing in December 2015.

On Palm Sunday, 20th March 2016, Springfield Cambridge will host a very special event for the Easter season. The Springfield Cambridge Festival Chorus will be joined by a company of actors and a professional band in a semi-staged presentation of Adrian Snell's "The Passion".

This exciting and moving 1980 work depicts the final events of the gospel, from the entry into Jerusalem to the ascension. The production will be directed by acclaimed Scottish theatre director David Lee-Michael and the music will be directed by myself.

It is our hope that this event will help underpin the local focus on the most significant event in our calendar and that the Bishopbriggs church community will join us for what promises to be a powerful and very memorable experience.

The event will begin at 7.30pm and last around an hour. To help offset the substantial costs of the presentation, entry will be by tickets, costing £9 each. In the first instance these will be available from members of the Springfield Cambridge Festival Chorus.

Please secure your tickets early as we anticipate significant demand. Thank you as ever for your ongoing support of the musical work of our church.

Sleeping bags airing . . .

. . . a night shelter ready to receive its visitors

so where in Europe is this Refugee Centre?

The answer is - 4 miles from our church – 14 minutes down the road in East Campbell Street; this being the Lodging House Mission. On a Sunday evening back in January, Lynne and I attended the Homeless Sunday evening service at the Mission. And an excellent, meaningful and thought provoking and uplifting service it was; led by the Chaplain, Gus McKay; with excellent hymns, poems, songs, an address by Rev Tom Pollok the current Presbytery Moderator and scriptural readings delivered by two of the service users. As I sat in my seat, my eyes were drawn to the side to the impact image of the sleeping bags draped over the old pews to air. Gus McKay kindly gave me permission to photograph the scene and he himself encouraged me to take a photograph of the Night Shelter laid out on the ground floor.

It struck home forcibly to myself that the Christian Community does indeed need and require in all Christian love to reach out and help those in the Refugee Centres in Calais and beyond. But to note and accept that there are needs of others to be met on our own doorstep.

James Robertson

And with regard to the association between our own church and LHM it is very pleasing and positive to follow on with this update . . .

Christmas Cards

Many thanks to all members of the congregation who purchased for last years' Lodging House Mission Appeal;; it is very much appreciated and all the cards were sold at a total of £741.

Christmas Cash Present Appeal

This appeal raised a grand total of £414.25 and again my thanks go to all the members who contributed. The support given to the Lodging House Mission from Springfield Cambridge Church is excellent and I wish to thank you all on behalf of myself and the Mission for all your kindness.

On the Front Cover This Month

Our ‘front cover reflections’ on Scottish hymn writers had, of course, to include the Rev John Bell. Born in Kilmarnock in 1949, Rev Bell is closely associated with the Iona Community and the Wild Goose Resource Group. Rev Bell has produced (often in collaboration with his writing partner Graham Maule) many collections of original hymns and songs. He was Convenor and Music

Editor on the committee which drafted the Church of Scotland’s fourth edition of its church hymnary which was published in 2005. Within CH4, John (along with Graham) have contributed many hymns – including within the Easter section of the hymnary. However, the featured hymn is number 409, “Jesus is risen, alleluia; contained within the section on “Christ Risen – Resurrection and Exaltation” written by Bernard Kyamanywa. Rev Kyamanywa wrote the original Swahili text (with the title Mfurahini) while he was attending the Lutheran Seminary in Tanzania. He wrote it in African style, envisioning a story-teller and congregation responding. The English language version contained within CH4 was written by John Bell. The opening lines are shown on the front cover and verse two appears on the back page. The chorus for which invites us to –

Come, let us worship Him, endlessly sing;

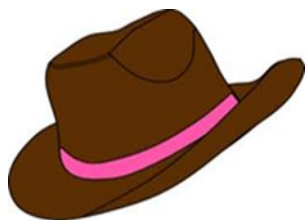

Christ is alive, and death loses its sting

Sins are forgiven alleluia!

Jesus is risen, alleluia!
